

A diagrammatic equation in knot theory. The left side shows a crossing of two strands, followed by a dot, followed by another crossing of the same two strands. This is set equal to a diagram with two separate circles, each with a strand looping back to itself in a full twist.